

To support Tairāwhiti people living in hardship to learn to live well & flourish

SuperGrans is a holistic wellbeing service that offers whānau a hand when they need it the most. We don't judge the situation that people find themselves in, we help out with what whānau need and operate according to old fashioned whanaungatanga.

Our aim is to help in a way that supports people to help themselves and gain a greater level of control over their lives. We provide the Tairāwhiti community with kai parcels, budgeting advice, life skills and cooking workshops, and social work.

"If you're wanting to make a positive and productive change in your life but need a bit of help to get started and going in the right direction, Supergrans transformative life skills course is perfect. Everyone is amazing and they're all there to help. It's definitely a unique and awesome place. "(By a client on Facebook)

"SuperGrans have helped so many people including me. They've taught me how to budget, put budget meals together, brought in courses and have showed me so many skills that are a necessity to life. They are advocates and they are mentors. Thank you SuperGrans."

"They help make a real difference in people's lives. They would make the very most out of the funding and because they help in so many different areas of the community it's ripples help effect positives all across Tairāwhiti."
